My dear Dr. Lummis,—

I am very glad of the opportunity to procure a copy of this book which I am sure puts music lovers still further in your debt.

I hope the copy can be mailed in time for us to enjoy it at our summer home, but I add the permanent address on the blank.

Sincerely yours,

W. A. Donovan.

My dear Prof. Donovan:

I mailed the Song Book to you at Alton, New Hampshire, August 14--the day after receipt of your courteous note with remittance.

I trust the book reached you safely and that it will give you the pleasure which its genuineness as Folk Song seems to me to merit.

With best wishes,

Sincerely Yours
